PROGRAM REPORT

Title of the Program: NSS Special Camp - Street Plays in Village Pimpalad, Trimbakeshwar

Date(s): 04/01/2019, 05/01/2019 and 06/01/2019      Duration: 03 days

Venue: Pimpalad Village, Tal. Trimbakeshwar, Dist. Nashik

Details of Participants: 47

Introduction

National Service Scheme (NSS) special camp street plays organized by the NSS unit of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering in Village Pimpalad, Trimbakeshwar Taluka. The street plays aimed to address critical social issues, including female feticide, girl child education, cleanliness, open defecation-free (ODF) communities, and against the dowry tradition in society.

Objectives of the Street Plays:

1. To create awareness about pressing social issues affecting the community.
2. To engage and educate villagers on sensitive subjects such as female feticide, girl child education, cleanliness, ODF communities, and the harmful dowry tradition.
3. To use creative means, such as street plays, to amuse and inform the villagers.

Activities Conducted:

1. Street Plays: NSS volunteers, along with participants from other colleges, formed groups to perform street plays on the mentioned social issues. Each group created short, impactful plays that depicted real-life scenarios and conveyed the message effectively.
2. Central Public Place Performance: The street plays were performed at the central public place of the village, ensuring maximum visibility and engagement with the villagers. The central location allowed for a broad audience, ensuring that the messages reached a diverse group of community members.
3. Distribution of Information: Pamphlets and informative materials on the addressed issues were distributed to the villagers, providing them with written resources to refer to.

Beneficiaries: The beneficiaries of these street plays included the entire community of Pimpalad, as the messages and awareness generated were meant to reach and benefit all villagers. The street plays were not only entertaining but also served as a valuable educational tool to create awareness and stimulate positive change.

Achievements and Outcomes:

1. The street plays effectively conveyed the message and importance of addressing sensitive social issues such as female feticide, girl child education, cleanliness, ODF communities, and the dowry tradition.
2. The creative approach of using street plays engaged the villagers and made the subjects more relatable and memorable.

In conclusion, the NSS special camp street plays in Village Pimpalad, Trimbakeshwar Taluka, successfully addressed critical social issues and engaged the community in a meaningful and creative way. The dedication and creativity of the NSS volunteers and the participation of other college students contributed to the success of this event.
