PROGRAM REPORT

Title of the Program: Food, Water, Medicines and Sanitizer distribution to Needy People.

Date(s): From 01/04/2020 to 30/05/2020      Duration: 2 Months

Venue: Volunteer location and nearby area.

Details of Participants: 100

Name of the Contact Person: Prof. K. W. Kale, NSS PO. KCT's Late G.N. Sapkal College of Engineering.

Introduction

In response to the unprecedented challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering extended their support to the community through various initiatives. This report focuses on the distribution of food and water to the needy and traveling workers, as well as the distribution of sanitizers to individuals who lacked access to these essential items during the pandemic. To support to this noble cause and to motivate out volunteer Hon. CMD of Kalyani Charitable Trust Dr. Ravindra sapkal also distributed Arsenic album -30, homeopathic tablets to the needy people.

Objective

The primary objective of these initiatives was to address the immediate needs of vulnerable populations affected by the pandemic. The NSS volunteers aimed to provide relief to those who were facing difficulties in accessing food, water, and sanitizers due to economic hardships or limited availability.

Food and Water Distribution:

- o The NSS volunteers organized food and water distribution drives in collaboration with local authorities and NGOs.
- o Nutritious meals were prepared and packaged to ensure safety and hygiene standards were met.
- o Special attention was given to the nutritional value of the food to support the health and well-being of the beneficiaries.
- o Distribution points were set up in areas with a high concentration of needy individuals, including migrant workers and daily wage laborers.
- o Social distancing measures and other safety protocols were strictly followed during the distribution process.

Sanitizer Distribution:

- o In recognition of the importance of hand hygiene in preventing the spread of COVID-19, the NSS volunteers also distributed sanitizers.
- o Sanitizers were procured or prepared in accordance with recommended guidelines for hand sanitization.

- o Distribution points were established in underserved communities where individuals might not have access to sanitizers or the means to purchase them.
- o The volunteers provided demonstrations on proper hand sanitization techniques to ensure maximum effectiveness.

Impact

1. Relief for Vulnerable Populations: Food and water distribution efforts provided essential sustenance to those who were struggling to secure their basic needs during the pandemic.
2. Support for Migrant Workers: The initiatives were particularly beneficial for migrant workers and daily wage laborers who faced financial uncertainties and limited access to resources during lockdowns.
3. Health Protection: The distribution of sanitizers contributed to enhanced hygiene practices in communities, reducing the risk of COVID-19 transmission.
4. Community Solidarity: These relief activities fostered a sense of community and solidarity among the volunteers, beneficiaries, and the college community as a whole.

Conclusion

The NSS volunteers of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering demonstrated exceptional dedication and social responsibility by providing essential support to vulnerable populations during the COVID-19 pandemic. Their efforts in distributing food, water, and sanitizers not only alleviated immediate hardships but also reinforced the importance of compassion and community engagement during times of crisis. The volunteers' commitment to helping those in need exemplifies the spirit of selflessness and solidarity, serving as an inspiration to others
