PROGRAM REPORT

Title of the Program: Youth Survey Program at Wadholi Village

Date(s): From 17/04/2023 to 17/04/2023      Duration: 01 days

Venue: Wadholi Village, Tal. Trimbakeshwar, Dist. Nashik.

Details of Participants: 52

Name of the Contact Person: Mr. Tukaram Tambade, Sarpanch, Wadholi Village, Tal. Trimbakeshwar, Dist. Nashik.

Introduction

In pursuit of understanding and addressing the challenges faced by youth not engaged in formal education or regular employment, a program was conducted in Wadholi village. The program, spearheaded by a team that included Prof. K. W. Kale, Prof. Dr. R. K. Kasar, Prof. Shweta Bagade, and Prof. Kiran Deore, was executed with the active involvement of 80 dedicated NSS volunteers. This report provides a comprehensive account of the program's objectives, methodologies, findings, and impact.

The primary aim of this program was to gather vital data on the youth population in Wadholi village who were not part of the formal education or employment system. By visiting every household, the NSS volunteers meticulously collected data to identify eligible candidates for the survey. This report outlines the steps taken during the program and the subsequent submission of the data to the university, following the provided guidelines.

Data Collection Process

The heart of the program lay in the rigorous data collection process. Our NSS volunteers tirelessly visited households, engaged with community members, and documented information pertaining to the youth not enrolled in formal education or regular employment. Innovative data collection tools were utilized, ensuring accuracy and efficiency throughout the survey.

Data Submission to the University

As per the instructions received from the university, the collected data was meticulously organized and submitted in a timely manner. This step was vital to ensuring that the university could analyze the data and draw meaningful conclusions from it.

Key Findings and Analysis

The findings from the survey are presented in this report, shedding light on critical trends and patterns in Wadholi village's youth population. The analysis section discusses the implications of these findings, emphasizing the importance of addressing the challenges faced by the youth not in formal education or regular employment.

Program Impact and Challenges Faced

We delve into the positive impact of the program on both the community and our team, highlighting testimonials and feedback. Additionally, challenges faced during the program are candidly discussed, along with the strategies employed to overcome them.

Recommendations and Conclusion

To conclude, this report offers recommendations for future initiatives aimed at addressing the issues identified in the survey. It underscores the significance of continuing efforts to improve the educational and employment prospects of Wadholi village's youth.

The report concludes with acknowledgments for all participants, including NSS volunteers, professors, and the community, as well as any relevant appendices and references used in the preparation of the report.
